MEMORANDUM FOR SECRETARY, INTELLIGENCE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

SUBJECT: Special Budget Analysis, Fiscal Year 1956

1. Reference your memorandum, subject as above, dated 3 December 1954. The Air Force does not concur in proposed answer as written.

2. The following changes, if incorporated, will make the paper acceptable to the Air Force:

a. Second sentence, Paragraph 1a to read: "Establishment of the procurement subcommittee has enabled the full time and part time" et cetra.

b. Page 2, Paragraph c, last sentence to read: "Among the principle accomplishments of this subcommittee are:" et cetra.

d. Page 3, Paragraph 2c4 to read: "Inter-agencies agreements for most effective utilization of a wide variety of publications and materials."

e. Page 3, last paragraph, should be deleted since it is redundant. Subjects are covered in preceding paragraphs.

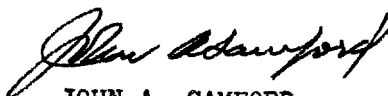

f. Page 8, Paragraph 2, third sentence, to read: "The most serious to the Department of State" et cetra.

g. Page 9, fourth subject, first paragraph, to be deleted since it is an opinion and not considered factual.

h. Page 10, first sentence to read: "Substantial improvement in the military intelligence collection under the present personnel equipment and operations expense limitations apart from" et cetra.

i. The entire third paragraph beginning on Page 10 should be deleted. It is not appropriate for referral to the Bureau of the Budget. They are, however, subjects which the IAC could consider.
